

THE STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

SUPREME COURT

In Case No. 2006-0298, Tina Parsons v. City of Manchester
& a., the court on February 13, 2007, issued the following order:

Tina Parsons appeals a decision of the trial court upholding the department of labor's denial of her wage claim. See RSA 275:51 (1999). She argues that the trial court erred in: (1) failing to consider the parties' intent in construing the verbal agreement; (2) failing to properly apply the doctrine of apparent authority; (3) failing to find that she was a salaried exempt employee entitled to her full salary and benefits; (4) failing to find that her reclassification violated a city ordinance and was therefore void; and (5) finding that she did not provide full time services during the contested period.

Having considered the oral arguments of the parties and having reviewed the briefs and record on appeal, we find no error in the trial court's ruling and affirm.

Affirmed.

DALIANIS, GALWAY and HICKS, JJ., concurred.

Eileen Fox,
Clerk